Dear Congressman Lott, August 5, 1993 Now that I have received your reply, which accompanied the letter reply to you, I have total confidence in you as my representative. For your information, I am a registered Democrat, but I feel that by your stand on human rights, you have truly earned another term as Congressman. I hope you continue to be as concerned as you have been in the past.

I have included xeroxed copies of two articles which I think should come to your attention. It is urgent that you
